of the Japanese which cannot accept defeat. Many Americans who have played baseball with Japanese teams have seen a defeated Nipponese nine walk off the field in tears.

To them, defeat is a contradiction. Because they are Japanese are divine, and cannot be defeated. Usually they manage to get the game called off if it looks as if they are going to lose.

No Respect For Bravery

This may account for the occasional phenomenon of excessive cruelty to hand-fighting enemies
for although the Army Press section has learned to pay somewhat grudging praise to brave resistance, the troops frequently commit their worst atrocities where they have met and overcome the bravest foe.

More and more, as the impetus of Japan's military thrust diminishes because of sheer distance, her warriors are going to find themselves in a position for which they have no psychological preparation whatever. That position is a defensive one.

What occurs in the still-feudal mind of the Japanese warrior
when the payoff time comes may hold hideous implications for the conquered territories and the western races imprisoned in them.

MORE NAZI FOLLY

"Whom the gods would destroy," goes the old saying,
"they first make mad." It seems especially applicable in the case of Nazi policy in Latin America. Certainly to a sane American, either North or South, it seems crazy for Germany to invite Brazilian hostility, with all that it entails, by wholesale submarine attacks on Brazilian ships.

Those attacks have become so numerous recently that they must represent a set policy.

It is hard to explain such procedure except by the assumption that the Nazi master minds think they can scare Latin-American shipping from the seas. If so, they merely show their rashness and ignorance. The nations of Latin origin in the hemisphere are as self-respecting and sensitive to attack or insult as are the Anglo-Saxons and others who dominate our own country. The United States is a state-wide American Legion project, having received officials approval at the annual state convention held recently at Fort Worth.

Others speaking in the interest of the club were Joe Daniel, Fred
D. Prince, H. P. Phillips, Mike
Edwards, and W. H. Smith.

Following a motion by W. H.
Smith, the Legionnaires unanimously adopted a resolution to organize the club. The Legion Auxiliary, meeting in joint-session with the Legionnaires, voted to join the movement and participate in the management of the information station in 1943.

Committees Named.

Fred V. Blucher, post commander, presided. He appointed a committee composed of Miles Edwards, John W. Sweeny, Ron D. McGuire, and W. H. Smith
to head the organization effort.

Eligible for membership will be ex-navy men and relatives and friends of men now in the service.

The Legion Auxiliary appointed a committee composed of Mrs. Ed-winia Milani, auxiliary president,
Mrs. Andrew Steele, Mrs. Roy
Patrick, Mrs. Mike Edwards, Mrs.
G. W. Williams, and Mrs. J. B.
Redden to take charge of the Auxiliary arrangements.

Officials requested that all citizens who have relatives in the navy to submit their pictures to the American Legion. The pictures will be used as a part of the patriotic decorations to be placed in the windows of the navy information station. Photographs of navy men who served in World War I will be welcomed.

While the building is being secured, photographs can be left at the Cut Rate Drug Store.

In another part of the business meeting, Joe Daniel reported on the state American Legion convention.

He called attention to one resolution approved during the convention which provides that all men serving in the Armed forces
on December 7, or who have enlisted since that date will be eligible for membership in the American Legion upon receiving an honorable discharge from the service.

In short, he said, if offers membership to only those engaged in this war.

Western writers who have studied Japan and the Japanese at great length contend that Bushido may have operated effectively in ancient Japanese times, whence it is supposed to have descended unbroken to this day. But they assert that Bushido was dead at the beginning of modern Japan, which has sprung full-blown from the isolationist fundamentalism of the Tokugawa Shogunate. In practice, these writers state, Bushido exists in few places other than the

Today there are fewer atrocities
than at the beginning of the Chinese-Japanese war five years ago.

Those that do occur are relatively isolated instances of the fanaticism and/or temporary cruelty of individuals, driven as much by fear as anything else.

Today atrocities can be traced largely to the half-bred and specially trained toughies who make up Nippon's sufu (substitute or

Japanese Gendarmerie.

This horde of military police which clamps down in conquered territory is a terror even to the Japanese army and navy. Officers

THE WALKING DELEGATEJESTER IN DIRECT
SUCCESSION REAGAN
UPON COMMISSION

Organization of an American Legion Navy Club for Navarro County was authorized at a meeting of Legionnaires of Corsicana Legion Post No. 22, organized on Friday evening.

Purpose of the club will be to disseminate information and stimulate recruiting. Present plans are to secure a building in the business district, apart from the naval recruiting station, where all the latest naval information will be made available to those interested.

J. G. Fitzhugh, recruiting officer for this district, explained the necessity for such an organization in this area. He was invited to appear before the Legionnaires after post officials decided that such an organization was needed in this section.

Club Is Needed.

Fitzhugh pointed out that naval recruiting facilities in this district, which includes Navarro, Limestone and Freestone counties, were exceedingly limited. With the aid of such a club, the task of securing the necessary 150 recruits per month would be immensely lightened, he said.

The organization of navy clubs is a state-wide American Legion project, having received officials' approval at the annual state convention held recently at Fort Worth.

It is hard to explain such procedure except by the assumption that the Nazi master minds think they can scare Latin-American ship-

On motion of J. B. Adkins, seconded by C. S. Wood,

MOTORISTS WARNED TO TAKE ESPECIAL CARE THEIR TIRES

Wilbur A. Wright, chairman of the Navarro County war price and rationing board, made it plain today that all motorists are going to have to intensify tire conservation, and that many persons on the eligible list for tires and retread are going to be disappointed, because of the quota shortage.

Both truck and passenger car tire allotments have been reduced sharply for September, Mr. Wright explained, and the board must make these reduced quotas serve only the most essential needs.

He pointed out that these reductions come at a time when all vehicles, especially trucks, are working overtime to meet the heavy demand for the fall movement of farm crops, and for wartime constructions and industrial production.

Eligible preference will be more severe, he asserted, adding that in all cases the board would deal honestly and impartially.

OPA has informed the local office that the monthly quotas for the remainder of the year would reflect a sharp downward trend, and that it is no longer possible to carry over unfilled applications from month to month.

RITES FOR LITTLE GIRL LATE FRIDAY

GRAPE CREEK CHURCH

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Grape Creek Church for Mattie May Blanton, age three years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Blanton, who died Thursday afternoon at the Navarro Clinic.

Rites were conducted by Dr. P. E. Riley, pastor of the First Methodist Church. Interment was in the Grape Creek cemetery.

Surviving are her parents, two brothers, Lawrence and Raymond

Tire, Tube Quotas
Slashed 25 Per Cent

Quotas for new tires and tubes have been slashed approximately 25 per cent for the month of September. Chairman Wilbur A. Wright of the Navarro County war price and rationing board announced Friday morning.

Applications are continuously arriving with no possible relief in sight, he said. The situation is similar throughout the state, recalling a recent state-wide announcement that there are approximately 30,000 unfilled applications pending in Texas.

The September quotas include 16 new passenger tires, 17 grade two passenger tires, 85 passenger retreads, and 77 passenger tubes. For trucks were listed 109 tires, 60 retreads, and 85 tubes.

In addition the board can ration nine passenger automobiles and 22 bicycles during September.

Many Selectees
Leave For Dallas

Two buses were required to transport selectees from Navarro County Draft Board No. 1 to Dallas for final examination and induction in the army. It was reported that persons who served in World War I were included in the contingent.

All had passed their local examinations.

An Orderly Home
Absolute Necessity

"A place for everything and everything in its place," is as important in the home as in a doctor's office. Miss Vera Sneed told a group of White's Chapel Club Women at a meeting in the home of Mrs. W. N. Hamilton with Mrs. Martha Hamilton Conn as hostess.

Miss Sneed discussed clothes closets and storage spaces. Mrs. Worthington of Black Hills and Miss Ora Speagles from Barry were guests. Mrs. Conn, assisted by her mother and sister, Mrs. Edith Pollock served ice cream and cake.

OPA TAKES ACTION FOR SOLVING COTTON FARMING PROBLEMS

The Office of Price Administration has taken action on two fronts to solve pressing cotton farming problems.

On one front, a new maximum price regulation, No. 211, has been approved to cover cotton ginning services; on the other, the OPA has ruled that crushing mills, until Oct. 1, 1942, may add actual cottonseed hulls from outside mills to resell to feeders. The latter ruling was made in order to relieve the present temporary shortage of hulls in certain parts of Texas and Oklahoma.

For a ginner who wishes to supply services which are the same as or substantially similar to those which he supplied during the base period—Aug. 1 to Oct. 31, 1942—there are three alternative pricing methods under the new ginning service regulation. However, once a ginner has chosen the method for establishing his maximum service fee, this must be his only method for all transactions.

The three alternatives are: 1.—105 per cent of the highest dollars-and-cents price charged by the ginner for selling or supplying such services to a purchaser of the same general class during the base period. This 5 per cent may be added to last season's price of both ginning and of bagging and ties.

2.—For the ginner who may have become involved in a price war last season and dropped his price below 25 cents per hundredweight, OPA has automatically permitted him relief without the necessity of appealing for an adjustment. He may charge 25 cents per hundredweight of seed cotton for ginning picked cotton, 27 1/2 cents per hundredweight of seed cotton for ginning baled or snapped cotton and $1.50 for bagging and ties, for which price the ginner shall render such other ginning services as he sold or supplied to purchases of the same general class during the base period. To this price he may not add any percentage.

3.—In the event that a ginner is unable to determine his maximum price for ginning in accordance with paragraph 2, 65 cents per hundredweight of lint cotton, gross weight for ginning picked cotton, 71 1/2 cents per hundredweight of lint cotton, gross weight, for ginning baled or snapped cotton, and $1.50 for bagging and ties, for which price the ginner shall render such other ginning services as he sold or supplied to purchases of the same general class during the base period.

Each ginner must post his maximum price and his actual selling price for ginning, bagging and ties in a manner plainly visible and understandable.

Formerly covered by MPR 165, ginning services have been put under a separate regulation because of the peculiar needs of the highly specialized service.

JOHNNY DOUGHBOY EATS OVER TON OF FOOD PER ANNUM

COLLEGE STATION, Aug. 31.—(Spl.)—Johnny Doughboy is a husky young fellow and he does a stiff day's work. That's why he eats a lot more than Mr. Average Citizen.

That's another good reason why the nation's farmers are producing vastly increased amounts of food in the Food for Freedom program.

The Texas USDA War Board points out that records of the U. S. army quartermaster corps and the department of agriculture indicate that:

Every day a soldier drinks more than a quart of milk in some form or other. A civilian drinks less than a quart in two days.

Every day a soldier eats almost seven pounds of food, a civilian eats nine.

Every week a soldier eats nine eggs. A civilian eats fewer than six eggs a week.

Every week a soldier puts away 5 1/2 pounds of meat, poultry and fish. A civilian eats less than three pounds.

Every year a soldier eats 1 1/4 tons of food. A civilian eats less than 3 1/2 tons.

Every year a soldier eats 245 pounds of food. A civilian eats 1465 pounds. It takes half a ton more to keep the soldier fit.

NINE AIR CORPS MECHANICS FROM COUNTY JOIN UP

Nine Navarro county youths have been accepted by the U. S. army recruiting office here for service in the air corps as mechanics, welders, metalworkers, radio operators and armament experts.

They are Richard J. Kelly, Purdon; Lloyd H. Carroll, August Ear McDaniel Jr.; Richland; Alvin H. Moore; Barry; Duane A. Yates, Dawson; Elbert H. Roberson, Corsicana; Joe B. Waldron, Corsicana and Longview; William M. Bolen, Purdon, and Casper Armstrong, Corsicana.

Vacancies now exist in this branch of the service and Ssgt. M. A. Strickland urges men who work with tools to apply immediately. He stated that all applicants will be tested for trade qualifications before they are accepted for enlistment and will not be accepted for this work if they are disqualified. In addition, he pointed out that applicants must apply before receiving an induction notice from their local selective service board.

Married men will be accepted, he said, and will be paid allowance for their dependents.

SUMMER TAN ADIEU!

Although there are still several weeks of summer weather for us to enjoy, nevertheless I think it might be well for you to consider letting your tan fade out. With your new

ting her skin burn several times during the summer in the hope of "toughening" it up—some girls have told me they try to do. It is so much better to use the liquid toner to remove the tan.

Registration for Junior Hi School Planned This Week

Classes in the Corsicana Junior high school for the fall term will begin Tuesday morning, Sept. 1.

According to reports, Rector was assisting in the loading of some cattle on the Burke farm near Roane when one of the animals suddenly bolted, striking Rector in his attempt to escape.

Taken to the Navarro Clinic in a Sutherland-McCormick ambulance, Rector was reported recovering satisfactorily Monday.

Registration will occupy the attention of students and teachers this week. The enrollment schedule was announced recently by Principal Armistead as follows:

Tuesday, 9 a. m.—High Ninth grade.

Wednesday, 9 a. m.—Low Ninth grade.

Thursday, 1 p. m.—Low Eighth grade.

Friday, 1 p. m.—High Eighth grade.

Houston Salesman Slightly Injured In Auto Accident

Garyard G. Thompson, Houston steel salesman, was given first aid treatment at the Navarro Clinic Saturday afternoon for injuries suffered in an automobile accident about four miles north of Corsicana on Highway 75.

The automobile in which he was riding was reported to have struck a bridge culvert and overturned. Another person in the vehicle, whose name was unavailable, was uninjured.

The accident was investigated by Highway Patrolman Frank P. Jircik and Aubrey Crockett and Deputy Sheriff B. V. Hatley.

At 2 p. m. a session will be held

Stop over-tanning yourself now

Fall clothes, that unattractive yellowish tinge that a fading tan must pass through, will be no compliment to the darker colors you will be wearing.

That doesn't mean that you must buy all outdoor fun, of course not. I would certainly try a protective lotion on your skin—one which will prevent tanning instead of encouraging it. There are several types available at your drug and department stores. Consult the person in charge who will find the right thing for you.

Jane Wyatt (R. K. O. feature player, soon to appear in "Army Surgeon") who has very fair skin never permits it to tan very much because a covering of freckles often results. And I think the white skinned girl makes a mistake letting her skin burn several times during the summer in the hope of "toughening" it up—some girls have told me they try to do. It is so much better to use the liquid toner to remove the tan.

WORK STOPPAGES IN WRIGHT PLANTS AGAIN ON MONDAY

PATERSON, N. J., Aug. 31.—(AP)—Work stoppages in two plants of the Wright Aeronautical Corporation broke out again today over a wage dispute.

Company officials said 500 men had not reported for work on the day shift at the Fair Lawn plant, while in mid-morning workers in one department of the East Paterson plant left benches and machines. The firm would not say how many men walked out in East Paterson.

Buick Strike Ended.

FLINT, Mich., Aug. 31.—(AP)—A two-day strike that closed the big Buick aluminum foundry here ended today.

Pickets withdrew from the plant and a company spokesman said officials of the Buick division of General Motors Corp. and of the United Automobile Workers (CIO), which has a contract with the corporation, would issue a joint statement later concerning a settlement.

Four Veterans Will Return at Waxahachie

WAXAHACHIE, Aug. 30.—Thirty members of the Waxahachie High school football squad will be sent to a training camp at Camp Cedar Creek near Lancaster early in September after business men here made the necessary arrangements.

Logan Stollenwark, head coach, has invited all boys interested in football to report for training this week.

The outlook is not too optimistic, according to the mentor, with only 14 letters returning. Among them are Charles York, Tommie Webb, Jimmie Cornelius and Brown Chiles.

The schedule:

Sept. 18—North Dallas at Waxahachie.

Sept. 25—Open.

Oct. 2—Waxahachie at Cleburne.

Oct. 9—Sunset (Dallas) at Waxahachie.

Oct. 16—Waxahachie at Mexia, district.

Oct. 23—Bryan at Waxahachie, district.

Oct. 30—Ferris at Waxahachie.

Nov. 7—Waxahachie at Ennis, district.

Nov. 13—Waxahachie at Hillis, district.
